Why Become an Arts Council Patron?

Perhaps you are not able or interested in participating directly in creative activities, but you want to support the arts in our community. Becoming a patron or adding to your previous donation allows you to demonstrate your commitment to the arts.

- Your gift will help fund programs in a variety of artistic disciplines for all age groups.
- Your generosity will help fund art scholarships, public art placement, awards and valuable opportunities for talented students in Monticello and surrounding towns.
- Your involvement in the arts puts our area on the cultural map, attracting new residents and tourists.
- Patrons receive the newsletter and enjoy discounts on classes, events and programs.
